SELECTION CRITERIA

Individual Athlete:

Any athlete who has attained a high level of excellence and brought recognition or honour to Perth and District sport can be considered for induction into the Hall of Fame.

The athlete must have been born in Perth and District; or is/was a long time resident of Perth and District; or someone who was a resident of Perth and District during their formative part of their athletic career; or someone who competed in sports in the area or represented the area in sports for an extended period of time.

The athlete must have concluded their careers as active players in the sport, for which they are being honoured, for a minimum of three years before their election to the Sports Hall of Fame. If the athlete is still active in sport they can be considered for election once they have achieved their fiftieth birthday. Deceased athletes will also be considered for election to the Hall of Fame.

Builder: (Including, but not limited to, Coach, Referee, Official, and Administrator)

Any person who has attained a high level of excellence and brought honour to Perth and District sport through ongoing dedication to the building of athletes, teams, or sport itself is eligible for induction in to the Hall of Fame.

A team is eligible for election to the Sports Hall of Fame after three years have elapsed since the team last competed as a team or since the event/season for which the team is nominated. Teams are selected for achievements in one year, not an era.

Athletes who compete as individuals within a sport but who are part of a sporting contingent are not considered to be part of a team. If a team result is calculated by the use of individual results, then the contingent is not considered to be a team for the purpose of the Perth & District Sports Hall of Fame.

Team members are recognized as part of an Honoured Team and not as an individual Honoured Member, although an individual from an Honoured Team may be recognized as an Honoured Member with a separate nomination.

A sports organization may not be inducted into the Perth and District Sports Hall of Fame in any category. Individuals representing an organization are permitted for induction.
